Game Summary:

Blues Brothers uses their team speed and physical style of play to show Trojan Horse that they want it more to knock off the defending champs. For Trojan Horse there is no opportunity to defend their championship title. Overall team defense and hustle wins this game for Blues Brothers. Dominic Defrancisco does what a captain needs to do and leads the way by example, scoring the game's first goal. Todd Bryson scores the game winning goal at the end of the second period that swings all the momentum over to Blues Brothers the rest of the way. Rick Cassano scores his team's only goal, too little too late. Goalie Sandra Glista is solid in net just missing out on the shutout.
