Game Summary:

In a comeback for the ages, down by two goals in the third period with five minutes to play, Top Secret continues to show their resiliency and score the next three goals to reach another Finals. The crazy game winning goal off a faceoff with 11 seconds to play goes out to Joe Shannon off a faceoff win by Marty Makarewicz, deflects off three different players, goes up in the air, changes direction three times, drops into the crease and rolls into the net, stunning ReUnited.

ReUnited has this game won late in the third period, by can't hold off the comeback of thier opponent.

Marty Makarewicz plays a solid game both ways on the rink and steps up in the third period with the game on the line, scoring 2-goals and adding an assist.

Joe Shannon scores 2-goals, including the history remembering game winner.

Matty Iannello does his part, scoring 2-goals to change the momentum for his team.

Mike Duggan is a threat all game, scoring 1 goal and adding an assist.
