Game Summary:

Loose Cannons runs the table behind Playoff MVP Nick Doherty to win the Spring 2022 Championship with a consistent overall team performance throughout the playoffs.

Top Secret's second back-to-back Finals appearance falls just short as they play short-handed up front (which catches up to them) as their magical playoff run comes to an end.

Nick Doherty caps off a Playoff MVP performance, scoring 2-goals, as the leading playoff goal scorer with 4-goals scored overall in three playoff games.

Jason Carrien scores his second goal of the playoffs, to go along with his assist, at a clutch time when it matters on the powerplay late in the third period, to lead all playoff defensemen.

Captain John Kelleher makes a brilliant "in game adjustment" in the third period, moving Dave Parquette up to forward on the powerplay who sets up the key insurance goal.

Both goalies Jake Deehan and Sean Roach have solid games in net, making some key saves in keeping this a close one goal game.

Both team defenses stand out this game and control the game for most of the time.

Congratulations to Pat Pirone and Tony Bono on winning another jacket, adding to their totals as the number 2 and 3 all-time jacket winners!
