Game Summary:

Last Call builds some momentum heading into the playoffs, going undefeated in their last three games, earning five out of a possible six points in the process, finishing as the 6th playoff seed.

Gold Miners cools off right before the playoffs, losing two straight games, after going 7-0-1 in their previous eight games, finishing as the 2nd playoff seed.

Gino Tammaro scores 2-goals to finish as his team's leading scorer.

Garvin Chan's heads up play behind the net halfway through this game results in a goal that catches the defense and goalie by surprise and breaks open a close game, changing the momentum.

Ron Aquino has his second straight multi-point game, playing the playmaker role setting up two goals.

Joe Carlton scores his team's only goal.
