Game Summary:

Roadrunners keeps their two game undefeated streak going in impressive fashion as they are missing their top two offensive players.

Captain's Mutiny plays better but extends their losing streak to three straight games with suspect goaltending and a lack of scoring.

Tony Fosco breaks out in a big way, carrying the offense for his team single-handedly, scoring a hat trick, with three well-placed shots.

Todd Bryson has time and space in the high slot to pick the far top corner for a key go ahead goal.

Garvin Chan's playmaking skills stand out as he sets up the key insurance goal late in the second period, then adds a goal.

Jason Glista scores his first goal of the season.

Matty Iannello extends his point scoring streak to three games.
