Game Summary:

With a huge win, Jake-O-Lanterns breaks their two game losing streak to keep their playoff hopes alive, setting up a showdown game next week to determine if they are in the playoffs.

Snow White, missing two of their top players, comes back with a furious push in the third period only to fall short, as they lose their second game in a row.

Angelo Deluca has a great game, scoring the game winner at a crucial time, while assisting on another goal.

Jason Carrien is the offense for his team as he moves up front, scoring 2-goals.

Matty Iannello moves back up front and scores a goal while being the playmaker dishing out passes.

Ray Nickerson is the set up guy for his team, assisting on both goals.

Steve Medeiros doesn't factor on the game sheet, but makes plenty of key noticable plays during this game, including a huge laid out body block of a slot shot late in the third period.
