GAME SUMMARY:

Lone Rangers emphatically break their two game losing streak with a blowout win (the first of three blowout wins today), as their first line is clicking on all cylinders with both their running game and scoring, scoring four goals in the first period to break this game open early.

Brew'ins is simply missing yoo many roster players (7 total players out.....seriously?) to extend their losing streak to three games with their second straight game of missing 5 or more players (a reminder that attendance matters), and are outmatched the entire game with no offense and no team support for their defense.

Rob Sheridan has a breakout game as he finally has wingers who are running that he can distribute the ball to, scoring a hat trick while adding 3-assists.

Fill-in player Rich Pelletier also has a big game with his own hat trick and 2-assists (sorry Rich these stats don't count on your season stats).

Fill-in player Marty Makarewicz has his running forechecking legs going all game that results in 3-assists.

Goalie Scott Rosato records his first shutout of the season as he stops alll 20 shots faced.

Honorable mention goes to Derrick Power. He didn't make the game sheet but was noticiable as he simply kept playing the game regardless of the score; forechecking, running, backchecking THE ENTIRE GAME! Take notice everyone else, even with the score 7-0 against his team, HE DIDN'T MENTALLY CHECK-OUT LIKE OTHER PLAYERS ON OTHER TEAMS, he kept playing.
