Game Summary:
 Dominions continue to roll, even when missing five players, as they score the game's last three unanswered goals, to stay undefeated after six games.
 Baney & Friends also plays this game shorthanded missing four players, lead the game halfway, but, can't mount enough offense after that as they lose their third straight game.
 Captain Dominic Defrancisco leads the way on offense with 2-goals and 1-assist, as he extends his two point average scoring streak to six straight games.
 Pat Pirone picks up his offense and makes a big impact in this game, as he sets up the first goal for his team, then ties it in the second period.
 Captain Angelo De Luca is the offense for his team, scoring 2-goals, while displaying a re-emergence in his own offensive scoring game.
 Derrick Power contributions on offense continue, as he extends his point scoring streak to three games.
 Goalie Duncan Roach continues his early season dominance in net, with another solid performance in making his run to beat his Pink Shirt Challenge.
