Game Summary:

Phoenix Rising continue to roll as one of the two top teams in the league, even when missing four players, staying undefeated after six games.

Azores Express winning streak ends at two games, as they go down early in the game by two goals, can't get their offense going and get shutout.

Matty Iannello continues to defy expectations and prove his critics wrong during his comeback redemption tour, as he is his team's offense, scoring 1-goal and adding 4-assists, to factor in on every goal his team scores.

Garvin Chan finally breaks out, taking advantage of his scoring opportunities with 1-goal and 2-assists.

Jay Carrien has his second standout game of influencing both the defense and offense for his team, scoring a big goal in the first period to break open a close game, while adding an assist, quarterbacking his team's defense (again).

Ed Chin's hustle again pays off as he scores another goal, his fourth in his last five games, extending his point scoring streak to five games.

Rookie A J Larabee makes a statement this game with his second consecutive shutout and third of the season, as he stops all 25 shots he faces to extend his lead atop the leading goalie race.
