GAME SUMMARY:
Leafpeepers extend their winning streak to two games, as they climb out of the cellar, with a balanced scoring attack featuring four different scorers. The youth player recently added to their roster, has sparked a rejuvenated response from the team, while lowering the age of their team roster now to an average of 56 years.
Brew'ins can't maintain the momentum gained from their big tie game against the top team, as they are missing one of their key offensive players and are unable to mount a consistent sustained scoring attack. This team has the players to go on a winning streak, but have to buy-in as a team to run more and control the ball better to do so.
Mike Luise leads the way on offense for his team finally scoring his first goal of the season, while setting up a key goal early in this game.
Goalie Dave Giusti has a solid game in net stopping 25 out of 26 shots faced, keeping his team ahead in a very close game until they can find their scoring offense.
Jon Brown scores his team's only goal.
