GAME SUMMARY: Don't look now but the Canadian Geese have turned around their season after a 0-2 start, scoring only one goal, to winning three of their last four games while emerging as one of the league's highest scoring teams. Lone Rangers can't keep their two winning streak going as they have difficulty generating any consistent scoring opportunities and are relying on their top player to carry them. Others need to step up in generating some offense and quickly. This team depends on having all four of their defensemen in attendance if they are going to consistently compete and slow down the other team's offenses. Until all of the above mentioned occurs, the jury is still out on this team. Once again, rookie Ben Tomsyck leads his team's offense with that shoot first then shoot again mentality, as he scores 2-gals and adds 1-assist. It is his fourth straight multi-point game of the season. Perhaps inspired by Ben, another shoot first, then shoot again player Nick Romano captures some glory from his past by scoring 2-goals and adding 2-assists. Another surprising performance is the play of Naz who sets up three of his team's first four goals to help his team open up a close game. In addition to his offensive contribution, we were all reminded a couple of times after breaking up the other team's top players that they should "get that S@%& out of here" on his watch! Gino Tammaro follows up his previous 1-goal and 3-assist contribution with another one. Congratulations to Colleen O'Connell as she scores her first goal of the season on a slapshot from the point, beating goalie A J Larabee. With her goal, Colleen now has scored before 12 other defensemen in the league, including some top players on defense. Please enjoy the spotlight Colleen its well deserved, and go ahead and remind those other 12 goal-less players on defense if they say anything to "get that S@%& out of here" as you walk away!
