Game Summary:

Dominions extends their undefeated streak to seven games by jumping out to a three goal lead, their running forechecking game on full display, then hold on for the win. Hammertime goes down early, stages another third period furious comeback, only to fall short, as they continue to play 500 hockey.

Chris Torres sparks his team's offense from defense, jumping into the play with his hustle to score 2-goals, his first goals of the season.

Ray Dow extends his team's lead late in the first period, scoring his first goal of the season with a bomb from the left point.

Lee Nogler is the offense for his team, scoring 2-goals, to get his team back into this game, scoring three goals in his last two games.

Tony Medeiros scores a controversial goal early in the second period that opens up a tight game (was the net post moved back and why was the whistle not blown to stop play?).

Dominic Defrancisco and Eric Fortin each set up 2-goals with their playmaking skills.

Jim Clarke plays a role in his team's comeback as he sets up two goals.
