GAME SUMMARY:

In a wildly entertaining game by both teams, the Chickenhawks erased four deficits to earn a valuable point in the standings and break a three game losing streak. We finally watched this group of players "buy-in" and play a full game not as a group of individuals, but as a team, and it showed. They still give up too many goals against and need to clean up their play in their own defensive zone. But overall, they took a step in the right direction.

The Brew'ins had plenty of offense in this game and had both their lines going, earning a much needed point in the standings. This team is a much better team than the standings indicate as their biggest blemish has been the lack of scoring punch as well as holding onto late leads. Indications are that they are slowly improving in both of these.

Kevin Johnson returns from IR to put on an offensive display with an impact game to lead his team in scoring 4-goals and 1-assists, as he factors in on five of his team's six goals scored. He was the difference for his team, providing a much needed impact.

Nick Doherty has an impact game of his own scoring a hat trick giving his team a much needed boost on scoring.

Manny Nunes played a complete two-way game and stood out for his team, scoring 1-goal while adding 1-assist. More performances like this by Manny will go a long way in turning his team's season around.

Leo Trombley returns to action giving his team a much needed boost on balanced scoring with 1-goal and 1-assist. His scoring and leadership will go a long way in bringing his team together to buy-in.

Todd Bryson gets off to a fast start in this game, breaking a five game scoreless drought with 1-goal and 2-assists.

Elder Lopes shook off his Elderberry turnover game last week to quaterback his team's defense while getting involved in his team's offense, assisting on three goals.
