GAME SUMMARY:

Wing-Ah's extend their winning streak to two games as they jump out to an early lead in the first period, then take advantage on the power play late in the game to pull out a gutsy win. Once again showing that if you ease up against this team in the third period, they will take advantage of it with their running game and offense.

Canadian Geese is missing their top scorer in the game (making you wonder how this game would have really turned out if he played) but stepped up as a team in the second period to go ahead, only to watch their offense dry up in the third period as thier opponent turned the offense and pressure substantialy up in the third period.

Jamie Kehoe has a solid all-around game on defense then steps up when it matters late in the game scoring the game winning goal on the power play.

Lee Nogler extends his multi-point streak to three by scoring 2-goals, including a huge goal late in the second period that ties up this game.

Mike Duggan is a one-man wrecking crew as the offense for his team, scoring all three goals as he steps up with an impact game to fill in the missing offense for his team.

Nick Romano continues to find the fountain of youth in his game,with his second consecutive multi-point game as he sets up all three goals.

Joe Conary returns to action and scores his first goal of the season.
