GAME SUMMARY:

Canadian Geese win their first game of the season, breaking a two game losing streak, as they get timely scoring to break out of their dormant offense, and hold off their opponent in a very close game.

Brew'ins lose their second straight game, as they are in this game the entire way, and have a real chance to win this game. However, the impact of missing 5 of their regular rostered players does catch up to them.

The much touted rookie, Ben Tomsyk, finally makes his debut in the Over-30 league and lives up to all the pre-game hype, as he leads the way in scoring 2-goals while adding 1-assist. His offense awakens his team's dormant offense which has only scored 1-goal in its previous two games.

Fill in impact #1 - Mike Duggan filling in while two players are out on IR, scores 2-goals and assists on another.

Fill in impact #2 - Cam Long filling in does his part leading the way on offense, scoring 2-goals.

Nick Doherty factors in on every goal his team scores with 1-goal and 2-assists. Good to see Nick is living up to his "key player" off season draft status, as he has his second multi-point game, and now has seven points in his first two games played.
