GAME SUMMARY:

Chickenhawks extend their winning streak to two games as they break open a very close game late in the third period, scoring three goals to pullout the win, as they get balanced scoring (especially from an unexpected player).

Leafpeepers sees their one game winning streak halted as they fail to generate any consistent offense or scoring opportunities.

Shawn Mulcahy makes his overdue debut this season and has a big impact on his team's scoring, factoring in on three of their four goals scored, with 1-goal and 2-assists, leading the way.

Donny Maccini follows up his previous game's surprising impact scoring by scoring the games first goal. Who knew that the Raggedy Man was an actual consistent goal scorer?

Patrick Spencer finally scores his first goal of the season while having multiple prime scoring opportunities. Is this the game that helps him breakout offensively for his team?

Leo Trombley finally gets on the leading scorer board as he sets up two goals to ignite his team pulling away.
