GAME SUMMARY:

Wing-Ah's play shorthanded, are missing four players, stage a late game comeback down a goal, scoring with four seconds to play to pull out the win to extend their winning streak to three games.

For Lone Rangers, also playing shorthanded missing five players, it was a heart breaking loss, as they led late into the third period before allowing the game tying goal quickly on the power play. Then gave up a defensive turnover with seconds remaining suffering a gut wrenching loss.

Captain Dominic Defrancisco single-handedly carries his team and brings them back by scoring both their goals, as he steps up from his all-around play to seize the moment.

Rich Pelletier plays a key in his team's win, playing versitile filling in on defense, then switching to forward when needed especially late in the game, assisting on both goals, making some heads up reads.

Rob Sheridan does whatever he can to lead his team to an upset win, staying on the rink most of this game, while putting his team in front on a brilliant sniper shot out near the white line that beats the goalie cleanly.

Both goalies stand out this game in a classic goalie battle. Dale McIsaac has his biggest test this season, stopping 24 out of 25 shots, none better than his highlight reel recovery reaction save late in the game in a tied game, as he quickly reacts going down at the left of the crease while reaching back extending making a blocker save on a labeled deflected shot headed to the far right top corner. THE SAVE OF THE SEASON! Scott Rosato also rises to the moment for his team, as he stops multiple flurries of shots in close, to give his team a chance at pulling off a major upset. This was the best goalie head-to-head locked in moment of the season.
