GAME SUMMARY:

Canadian Geese win their fifth out of their last sixth games as they continue their surge up the team standings, after losing their first two games, with a blowout win that was over in the first period, scoring four unanswered goals.

Brew'ins never get untracked after falling behind early, as they can't find their offense, and their defense can't hold back the waves of offense by their opponent. Missing their top two players on offense doesn't help.

Ben Tomsyck continues his surge up the leading scorers board, with a dominating impact game, scoring a hat trick (his third this season) while stting up four other goals to factor in on every goal his team scored. Ben's early season goal production has a very good chance to break that 30-goal season barrier.

George Medeiros' quick start on offense, scoring both his goals in the first period breaks this game open for his team, as he breaks a three game goal scoring drought.

Gino Tammaro must like the numbers 1 and 3 as he records his fourth 1-goal and 3-assist game this season.

John Kelleher breaks the opposing goalie's shutout bid by scoring his team's only goal.
