GAME SUMMARY:

Chickenhawks appear to have found their game with another "buy-in" by the players to the team concept, as they have both their offensive lines balanced and contributing. They survive a furious comeback by their opponent with the game winning goal scored with only nineteen seconds to play. However, yes they do have plenty of offense, but their achilles heel continues to be their defensive play of giving up too many goals and getting into these shootout high scoring games. A buy-in needs to be made on a serious effort on their defensive structure.

Leafpeepers are missing their top two players and it shows early in this game, as they can't keep up with their opponent's game and offensive flurries. Trailing most of this game, down three goals late in the second period, they show some heart as a team to storm back (thanks to a gift goal shot by Ray Dow from across Route 1in the Walmart parking lot), tying this game late in the third period only to suffer a heatbreaking loss giving up the game winning goal with nineteen seconds to play.

Kevin Johnson does it again, with his second multi-point game (six goals scored in that timespan), with 2-goals including the game winner. After being out with injury three games into the season, Kevin has emerged as his team's key player on offense and "clutch time" goal scorer.

Patrick Spencer settles in on his new line combination to break out with his best production on offense this season, scoring 2-goals and adding 1-assist.

Ron Aquino has a break out impact game as he factors in on his team's first two goals to provide some momentum, scoring his first goal of the season while adding 2-assists.

Old Man Mike Luise once again channels his Team USA days of the past, especially in a crucial time during their comeback push, by scoring 1-goal and adding 2-assists.
