Game Summary:

Dominions continues their winning ways as one of the top teams in the league, throwing two running forechecking lines at their opponent, as they remain undefeated after five games.

M*A*S*H* continues their early season struggles of scoring goals, however, they played well in this game, running more on the forecheck. They just need to figure out the correct line combinations and control the ball better.

Dominic Defrancisco is quietly having a resurgence on offense scoring goals as he once again factors in on his team's offense, scoring 2-goals.

Manny Nunes stays hot on offense, scoring 2-goals, and has 5-goals scored in his last two games.

Eric Fortin returns to action after missing a few weeks and returns to form, with 1-goal and 1-assist, his third straight multipoint game.

Derrick Power hustles all game and gets rewarded with a 2-assist game.

A rejuvenated and re-energized Rick Cassano brings the Paisan intensity to make plays and records 3-assists.

Goalie Sean Roach stops all 24 shots faced in net, making it look as easy as a walrus in net. to record his first shutout of the season.
