Game Summary:

Dominions breaks out of their two game losing streak in a big way, playing shorthanded, they explode on offense with a barrage of goals, breaking this game open early in the third period into a rout.

Hammertime, missing their entire first line, and it shows, as they generate limited offense and can't keep up with the speed of their opponent. They play the majority of this game in their own defensive zone, as their two game winning streak comes to a halt.

Captain Dominic Defrancisco leads the way with 1-goal and 4-assists, showing off his playmaking skills while seperating himself from the competition in the leading scorers race.

Tony Medeiros is the scoring machine on offense for his team, with a hat trick and 1-assist, with 5-goals scored in his last four games.

Chris Torres makes it look seamless playing defense and jumping up into the offense, scoring 2-goals and adding an assist.

Rick Cassano returns to the lineup after being out on IR in a big way, joining in on the offense with 1-goal and 3-assists.
