GAME SUMMARY:

Lone Rangers finally have a full roster of players as well as having a new roster player inject some much needed hustle and scoring to their effort, as they break a three game losing streak. This was the first game we have witnessed every player "buy-in" to the team concept as well as run the entire game, and the results showed this.

The Brew'ins struggles to find that elusive win continue, even with the addition of one of the top scorers to their roster, as they simply are giving up too many goals each game and continue to make defensive mistakes in the third period that allow close games to get away from them. The scoring is there, they just need a team buy-in on playing defense first and win some close low scoring defensive games.

New addition Marty Makarewicz does not disappoint adding a much needed running game along with some scoring punch to his team by scoring a hat trick in his playing debut. Marty's goals in the second and third period break open a tie game.

Kyle McCabe has an impact game, giving his team all the momentum in the first period to jump start their offense, scoring 2-goals, then adds an assist early in the second period, giving his team a two-goal lead.

Nick Doherty does his best to keep his team in this game, scoring a hat trick. His third hat trick of the season. This team needs someone else to step up in the goal scoring consistently to take the pressure off Nick.

Tony Medeiros finally breaks out on offense with a big impact, scoring his first goal of the season, while setting up two goals. Shifting Tony to the second line center is a key strategic in game move that pays off. If this team is going to have a chance this season, they will need Tony to start increasing his goal scoring production.

Paul Firicano plays a big part in his team's offense as he sets up four goals. Hwever, his team will need him to start scoring some goals to go along with his defensive leadership role.
