GAME SUMMARY:

Chickenhawks are on a roll, going undefeated in their last three games as they continue to get timely scoring to move into sole possession of second place in the standings. It was an all-around solid team defensive performance; their first in five weeks. They continue to generate a lot of shots on net and shutdown the opponent, only allowing nineteen shots against them.

Canadian Geese plays their first game since week 2 without their top player and leading scorer and it shows, as the offense is non-existent with no one stepping up to pick up the slack on offense. When your designated go to player does very little and gives up too many times and stops playing, it places too much responsibility on other players to step up.

Derek Donegan scores the game winner on a transition 3-on-1 breakout late in the third period, while also stepping into the quarterback role to lead his team's defense.

The Raggedy Man Don Maccini shows up late (again) but immediately gets involved in the offense assisting on both his team's goals. His only drawback was his having multiple opportunities to actually shoot the ball, but giving up the shot to force too many passes. Time for the Raggedy Man to adopt the scorer's mantra of "shoot first, then shoot again" to keep the defense honest and not become predictable to play defense against.

Fill in players Cam Long and Mike Duggan each score for their teams, as Cam ran right past the defense to score a sniper's goal top corner far side (hey defense remember here comes Swifty).

Both goalies Sean Roach and A J Larabee were locked in all game in a classic goalie duel of who would blink first.
