Game Summary:

Phoenix Rising gets back to their winning ways, putting an end to their two game losing streak, as they grind out a win, and move back into a tie for first place in the standings.

Azores Express, missing their top two defensemen, keeps this game close, as they earn a valuable point in the standings.

Matty Iannello continues to write a remarkable comeback story, scoring the game winning goal in OT quickly on the powerplay, while setting up the game's first goal.

Eddie Chin also continues to have a breakout season, scoring the game's first goal, breaking a four game goal drought.

Cappy steps up playing some major minutes on defense while scoring a big goal tying this game.

Making a big play in overtime that goes unnoticed is Ike (who played a lot of minutes in this game), jumps into the offense and sets up a screen in front of the goalie on the game winning goal. It doesn't show up on the game sheet but its a big play!
