GAME SUMMARY: Leafpeepers get their first win of the season with an impressive start to finish controlling of this game, as they relentlessly outhustle, outwork and outscore their opponent. Canadian Geese lacks leadership and is too disorganized to keep pace, as the offense is sporadic chasing the play the entire game, the defense is not mobile enough to repel the movement of thier oppnent. The only saving grace for this disappointing effort was the play of their goalie. Pedro Fontes brings his A-game, scoring 2-goals while adding 1-assist and generating 11 shots on net. Pedro was a standout the entire game, covering a lot of space on the rink. Captain Tom Gallagher also joins the scoring feast himself, scoring 2-goals and adding 1-assist, while getting his entire team involved into this game. Mike Luise makes his debut and somehow looks younger on the rink as he sets up 2-goals. Not bad for a soon to be mid-60's player. Gary Goodwin has his running legs going all game, while getting his offense going, scoring 1-goal and adding 1-assist. Goalie Dave Giusti has an easy day at the office, as he only faces 23 shots, to record the league's first shutout of the season.	Team Timeout:
