GAME SUMMARY: Chickenhawks get their first win of the season in dominating fashion as they score goals in every period, control the entire game, and turn a close game into a rout with back-to-back powerplay goals two minutes apart in the second period. Lone Rangers is missing five of their players and it shows as they struggle on offense, while the defense can't hold back their opponent's offensive surge. Mike O'Neill has a statement game and gives the impressive that he has finally arrived in the Over-30 league as a difference maker, as he scores 5-goals while adding 1-assist, factoring in on six of his team's seven goals. Best player of the game! Angelo De Luca has the pressure taken off him on offense allowing him to play more of a set up role, scoring 1-goal while adding 2-assists. Donnie Maccini has a breakout game on offense as the raggedy man scores a big powerplay goal that breaks this game open, while adding an assist. Kevin Johnson is the playmaker setting up the game's first two goals and three overall. Goalie Sean Roach stops all 25 shots faces, and is tested a few times with some point blank shot attempts he turns aside, to record his first shutout of the season.	Team Timeout:
