Game Summary:

Hammertime breaks their two game losing streak as they are missing their top two forwards and top two defense, as others step up.
 Barney & Friends are still trying to figure out their team identity, as they can score goals in bunches but need to tighten up their defense.
 Patrick Spencer stands out as the impact player on his team, scoring a hat trick, including the game winner late in this game.
 Mike Duggan leads the way for his team, scoring 2-goals while adding an assist.
 Rookie Kyle McCabe has a great game, scoring not only his first career goal in the league, but adds a second for good measure.
 Jim Barber has his second multipoint game, scoring 1-goal while setting up the game winner.
 Joe Carlton shifts back to defense and jumps into the offense, setting up two goals.
 Fill in player Anthony Petrillo again adds consistency and offense, scoring 1-goal while adding 2-assists.
